L-3 TWO STORIES ABOUT FLYING

CLASS TEST

The young seagull was alone on his ledge. His two brothers and his sister had already flown away the day before. He had been afraid to fly with them. Somehow when he had taken a little run forward to the brink of the ledge and attempted to flap his wings he became afraid. The great expanse of sea stretched down beneath, and it was such a long way down miles down. He felt certain that his wings would never support him; so he bent his head and ran away back to the little hole under the ledge where he slept at night.

- (a) Why was the young seagull afraid?
- (b) What did the young seagull feel about his wings?
- (c) Pick out the word from the passage that means the same as 'the verge'.
- (d) Pick out the word from the passage which means 'a narrow flat piece of rock that sticks out from a cliff'.

Question 2

That was twenty-four hours ago. Since then nobody had come near him. The day before, all day long, he had watched his parents flying about with his brothers and sister, perfecting them in the art of flight, teaching them how to skim the waves and how to dive for fish. He had in fact, seen his elder brother catch his first herring and devour it, standing on a rock, while his parents circled around raising a proud cackle. And all the morning the whole family had walked about on the big plateau midway down the opposite cliff taunting him for his cowardice.

- (a) The young seagull had been alone for how much time?
- (b) Why was the whole family taunting the young seagull?
- (c) Find the word which can be replaced by 'consume' in the passage?
- (d) The word 'bravery' is an antonym of .....

Question 3.

He stepped slowly out to the brink of the ledge, and standing on one leg with the other leg hidden under his wing, he closed one eye, then the other, and pretended to be falling asleep. Still they took no notice of him. He saw his two brothers and his sister lying on the plateau dozing with their heads sunk into their necks. His father was preening the feathers on his white back.

Only his mother was looking at him. She was standing on a little high hump on the plateau, her white breast thrust forward.

Now and again, she tore at a piece of fish that lay at her feet and then scrapped each side of her beak on the rock.

- (a) What did the young seagull do out of his ledge?
- (b) What was seagull's father doing?
- (c) Find out the word in the passage which mean the same as 'to sharpen'.
- (d) What does plateau mean?
